Eris Jacey Masagca was a student at Anglo-Chinese Junior College (ACJC) from 2015 to 2016.

Eris is academically-driven and strives to do well in his studies. He is proficient in Mathematics, where he would constantly be placed in the upper 90th percentile rankings results-wise. To further stretch himself, he chose to take the H3 Mathematics course in 2016.

Eris is a team player and knows well within a team. Together with 3 of his peers, he overcame many obstacles for Project Work in 2015. Through the many interviews they had with external organisations, the countless drafts they had to come up with for the Written Report component, and the several practices they have had to do for the Oral Presentation component, through the sheer teamwork exhibited by the team, they managed to achieve an A grade each. In addition, he was a part of his class' games team for the 23rd ACJC Fun-O-Rama in 2016, and played an important part in their success in the event.

In addition, Eris also has a passion for music and the arts. He was a member of the ACJC Concert Band in 2015, and was their trumpet player during that period. He would come to each practice with vigour and enthusiasm, and he strived to improve as much as he could, as well as to play each piece as beautifully as he could. He has a deep appreciation for music in general and his time with the band shows just that. Despite the academic rigour of school and the intense, frequent and often long practice hours with the band, he managed to juggle each aspect relatively well.

Furthermore, Eris has shown compassion for those around him as well, including animals and the community. He participated in two Values in Action (VIA) projects, one of which was the "Horseshoe Crabs Rescue and Research" organised by Nature Society (Singapore) in 2015, where he would rescue horseshoe crabs trapped in nets from their otherwise impending doom. He joined several of his classmates in Project Cheer in 2016, where he, together with them, headed to a particular community to serve both the old folks and young children there in activities like games and sing-along sessions for social interaction.

In conclusion, Eris definitely has the potential to succeed in his undertakings. His qualities, together with his attitude and determination to excel, puts him in good stead to overcome the challenges that he will face in future.
